Sea Sweep Kona Landings.

Many landings along the Kona and Kauai coast of the island of Hawaii were swept by tremendous seas, is a report brought to Honolulu today by officers in the steamer Mauna Loa.
Because of unfavorable weather much cargo consisting of coffee and sugar was left behind. The vessel found some of the usual ports of call storm-bound. The coasting fleet is meeting with great difficulty in the movement of cargo to Hilo and Honolulu. The Mauna Loa brought a large and varied cargo, including shipments of poultry, 25 head of cattle, hides, eggs, honey, beans, pears, vegetables, oranges, beef, cotton, 20 sacks of taro, 70 bunches of bananas, 435 sacks of coffee, 8000 sacks of sugar and 100 packages of sundries. The vessel is scheduled to sail for Kona ports Friday noon.

SHIPPING AND WATERFRONT NEWS

JAPAN WARSHIPS
STILL HOVERING OFF ISLANDSJapanese war vessels continue to hover off the islands, confirmation of earlier reports being received with the return of the Inter-island steamer Mauna Kea from Hilo today.A large man-of-war which bore a close resemblance to the Hizen, a familiar figure off Honolulu harbor for some weeks, attended by a collier, were first noted by officers in the Mauna Kea in steaming along the lea-ward side of the island of Maui. The vessels were within a few miles of Lahaina, the appearance of the fleet bringing hundreds of spectators to the shore.Early Saturday evening the Mauna Kea sighted a large battleship and merchantmen exchanging signals by rockets and electric lamps. The flashing lights continued for about one hour. The vessels lay some distance off the island of Lanai.Fishermen returning to Lahaina from Lanai and the outlying rocks and reefs report three large war vessels and one or more smaller craft. The fleet now in Hawaiian waters is believed to include two colliers. The Kamakura Maru, which early last week called at Honolulu for a small quantity of supplies, has been recognized as attending the fighting ships.From Japanese sources also it was learned today that two warships have been coaling a few miles off Honolulu from the Kamakura Maru. According to these sources the two vessels are the battleship Hizen, which was here some months ago, and the armored cruiser Iwate, a sister-ship of the Idozumi, which is well-known in this port.The report was further confirmed today by Rev. H. P. Judd, who returned to Honolulu Sunday from a tour of Molokai. He said that he saw a battleship off Kaunakakai and one off Lahaina, Maui, last Friday night and Saturday.

dered to report to the military authorities and appear for medical examina-

REPORTED SUNK.LONDON, Eng., Jan. 26.—Despatches received yesterday from Venice by the Daily Mail say it is reported in cruiser has been blown up and sunk by a mine near the Briole Islands, at the mouth of Pola harbor, the Austrian naval base.The admiralty issued an official an-

CORRALED BY GOVERNMENT.BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 26.—It is officially announced that the government has seized the entire wheat supply of the country in order to safeguard the bread supply.This measure has become necessary because the people failed to economize as was advised by the German government at the outbreak of the war.The government will have the available wheat distributed to the different communities, according to the size of their population, and will continue in direct control of this supply until after the next harvest.COMPLICATIONS EXPECTED FROM GERMANY'S ACTION.LONDON, Eng., Jan. 26.—Further complications in the matter of shipments of foodstuffs to Germany from neutral countries are foreseen as the result of the reports that Germany is seizing food supplies for military use.
The American steamship Wilhelmshin, now en route to Germany with a cargo of foodstuffs, consigned to civilians, will be seized by the British government unless positive guarantee can be furnished that the cargo will not reach the German army if allowed to land in that country.With about 5000 tons of coal from Japan the steamer Tsurugusan Maru is expected to arrive at this port early in February. The vessel and fuel will come to the Inter-island Steam Navigation Company.A Japanese inventor has provided an iron kettle which bursts into song the moment the kettle begins to boil.
The sound is produced by steam bubbles striking against musical metallic bars just above the water.

The report of the sugar advance to 4.098, the latest in the succession of price oscillations, came too late to affect trading very much this morning, and little was done. The market is, however, expected to stiffen up this afternoon and tomorrow and unless there is another drop quotations should go up.The only transaction today was in Ewa, five shares going at the prevailing price of 19 1/2. Between boards Oahu gained 1/4, going to 19 1/2 after one sale at 19 1/2. McBryde advanced to 5 1/2, a gain of 1/4. Olaa was unchanged on three sales, as was Paia.

Twelve shares of Gas common sold at par. Oahu Railway is exhibiting strength, 13 1/2 being bid. This is one point over the last sale price.Every Electric Light in the Panama-Pacific Expositionis furnished by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company of California, and all this extra load is carried without interfering in any way with their usual efficient, every-day service; in fact, "Pacific Service" is the most dependable public utility in California.The First Preferred Stock of this splendid corporation is offered for sale in Hawaii at $82.50 per share, par value $100, at which price it brings in a net revenue of 7.27%, payable quarterly. The stock may be subscribed for in any amount from one share up.
